1.2 Metro Stations

The subway stations nearest Trialog are circled in the map above.

Villiers	Lines 2 & 3
St Augustin	Line 9
Europe	Line 3
Saint Lazare	Lines 3, 12, 13, & 14

1.3 Parking

We recommend to you use public transportation or a taxi. However, if you must drive, the nearest public parking lot is Parc Bergson. The entrance is located just across the street from 15 rue Laborde.

1.4 Building Entry

The street entrance for the building is two large doors. There is a number pad on the wall to the left of the doors. You do not need to type in a code. Just press the round button under the number pad. When you hear the buzzer, push open the left door.

Walk through the covered section into the open courtyard, then go up the stairs to Entrance A on the right. Take the elevator to the 5th floor where the offices on both sides are Trialog. Ring the doorbell on the right for reception.

Our meeting rooms are located on another section of the building. To directly go there, take the Entrance B at the back of the open courtyard and then take the elevator to the 3rd floor where Trialog's meeting rooms are located.

2 From Airports

You can take a taxi or public transportation from both airports. A taxi will cost around 60€. The next sections describe how to use public transportation from each airport.

2.1 Charles de Gaulle (also called Roissy)

From terminal 1, follow the signs for RER, CDGVal and Paris By Train. Take the CDGVal shuttle train to station Terminal 3 Roissypole, which is the airport RER (suburban train) station. You don't need a ticket for the shuttle.

From terminals 2 and 3, follow the signs for RER and Paris By Train to walk directly to an RER station. Then take the RER train (suburban train) line B direction Paris. Do not take the TGV Thalys train, which has its entrance right next to the RER entrance, since it only goes to other cities.

Note: save the ticket since you will need to use it again when you exit the RER zone.

Get off at station Gare du Nord. Then follow the directions from Gare du Nord below.

Another option would be to take the "RoissyBus", operating from Terminals 1,2 and 3, which goes directly to Opera.

2.2 Orly

From all terminals, follow the signs for RER, OrlyVal, and Paris By Train. Take the OrlyVal shuttle train to the RER station Antony. You need to buy a ticket for the shuttle, but you will use the same ticket for the RER to Paris. Get off the shuttle train at Antony and follow the signs to the RER line B.

Take the RER train (suburban train) line B direction Roissy-Charles de Gaulle or direction Mitry-Claye (they both go through Paris).

Note: save the ticket since you will need to use it again when you exit the RER zone.

Get off at station Gare du Nord. Then follow the directions from Gare du Nord below.

3 From Train Stations

3.1 Gare du Nord

You can take the RER (suburban train) or a taxi to Trialog from the train station Gare du Nord.

To take the train, go up one level from the RER B platform and follow the signs to RER E, Gare Magenta, direction Saint Lazare (terminus). Go one stop and exit at station Saint Lazare (since it is the last stop, you can't miss it). Follow the signs for exit (sortie) Pole Saint Lazare, go up a level, then follow the signs for the exit (sortie) Saint Lazare and go up to street level. You will exit across the street from the entrance to the main train station. Then follow the map to walk to Trialog.

To get to the taxi stand from the RER platform, take the escalator or stairs to go up two levels. Then follow the signs for the exit (sortie) rue de Dunkerque, Grandes Lignes, and Eurostar. When you reach the street level, follow the signs for the taxi stand. With the trains to your right, walk through the waiting area and go out the side door, which is just past the Eurostar tracks. The line for taxis is just outside the side door.

3.2 Gare de l'Est

You can take the metro (subway/underground) or a taxi to Trialog from the train station Gare de l'Est. To take a taxi, stay at street level and follow the signs for the taxi stand.

To take the metro, from street level go down a level. Take line 4, direction Porte de Clignancourt. At station Barbès-Rochechouart transfer to line 2, direction Porte Dauphine (overhead) and exit at station Villiers (underground). Then follow the map below to walk to Trialog.

3.3 Gare de Lyon

You can take the metro or a taxi to Trialog from the train station Gare de Lyon. To take a taxi, stay at street level and follow the signs for the taxi stand.

To take the metro, from street level go downstairs. Take line 14 direction Saint Lazare and go to the end station Saint Lazare. Then go up to street level and follow the map to walk to Trialog.
